

GREENWAY OF THE OLIVE OIL

A Greenway around the immense sea of olive trees in Andalusia

DESCRIPTION

In this Greenway, you will find many interesting experiences to make your stay an unforgettable memory. You will visit traditional wineries and oil mills where you will learn about their different qualities. You will enjoy an immersion in the Order of Calatrava in the Castle of Alcaudete and you will relive its history.

Zuheros, Cabra, Lucena and Baena will be the places you will cross before arriving in Córdoba, you will also enter the Cueva de los Murciélagos (Bat Cave) and we will take you to the Passion Museum.

This greenway is between the stations of Jaén and Campo Real in Puente Genil (Córdoba), so you'll go through one of the most beautiful tracks of Andalusia.

ITINERARY

Day 1, we will leave from Jaén to Torre-delcampo, to arrive to Martos, where we will enjoy its popular gastronomy. Day 2, we will arrive to Alcaudete to visit its imposing Castle and the Fort of Al Mota. Day 3, our destination is Luque, with a quick stop at the Laguna del Salobral. Day 4, we will visit the Interpretation Center of the Oil to get to Baena and finally to Zuheros. Day 5, we will enter the impressive Bat Cave, continuing towards Doña Mencía. Day 6, the goal of the day is to arrive Cabra, to visit the Museum of the Passion. Day 7, we will arrive to Lucena, to visit its station and leisure area.
