

BAIONA GASTRONOMY IN GALICIA

A walk through the most authentic gastronomy of the Rías Baixas

DESCRIPTION

The Old Town of Baiona is declared a Historic Artistic Interest for its cobbled streets and historic buildings. The villa is full of corners and stories that we want to tell you to live as one of us.

In Baiona is the Monterreal Fortress, currently Parador. A walk at sunset with its stunning views, well worth a little of our time.

Baiona is a host town, all the people who visit us are always welcome. The sea, its fishermen and barnacles, gastronomy or wines are good claims, but above all its people, welcoming and always willing to dedicate the time you need to make you feel like one of us.

ITINERARY

Day 1, arrival at the airport of Vigo and transfer to the Parador de Baiona, perfect afternoon to explore the promenade and its views. Day 2, we will start with a tour of its stone streets passing through the old town, a group of historical artistic interest, until we reach the food market where we will taste some typical dishes with a craft beer tasting. Day 3, route through some of the nearby natural areas, such as Mount A Groba or the green path of the Baíña mills. For dinner we have reserved a table at the Marineiro Recuncho de Pedro. Day 4, quiet morning to walk around the Fortress of La Mota and enjoy its sunrise. In the afternoon, cultural visit through the center of Baiona. Day 5, we will share the morning with our friends barnacles, with their catches we will go to the fish market to know the auction process of this much sought-after sea product. Day 6, we will approach the nearby city of Vigo and its well-known market in A Pedra, where we can taste some fresh oysters, before moving to the airport to take the flight back home.
